GOAL of PANZANOFESTIVAL

Launch of a new event supported and sponsored by the Municipality of Greve in Chianti, featuring an annual cultural program significant for enthusiasts, curious individuals, and targeting a young audience.

The goal of this new annual project is to bring opera back into focus. To launch this project, in the summer of 2025, we will present two performances of "Il barbiere di Siviglia" by G. Rossini.

Director An Roos is already working on a fresh, lively, and contemporary production. Together with Maestro conductor Nima Keshavarzi, a cast selected from promising young talent, and experienced theater technicians, the project is taking shape.

In August, two weeks of intensive work with established singers, musicians, and talented young performers will transform this new project into an event not to be missed.
